September 2003

With the September Issue... the "Bulletin" Turns 6!

It doesn't seem possible, yet here we are, the sixth birthday of the "Beaver Creek Bulletin." It seems like yesterday that the first issue was published in September of

If anyone had told me that I would have had the pleasure of meeting so many nice people who live in our community I would never have imagined it.

We are very lucky to have so many small business owners, organizations and entrepreneurs in our community who are willing to support this publication with their ads. It helps them get the word about a product or service they provide while it provides the funds to keep our little publication going. The "Bulletin" would not be available free of charge to the community without their much valued participation. The advertising in the "Bulletin" also gives local organizations a way to let the community know about their fund raisers and events for the whole family.

The "Bulletin" has grown from a page-and-a-half to 16 pages per month made possible by the advertisers whose ads fill these pages. The "Bulletin" hopes that you have found the paper informative and of value to the community it serves. We hope that you continue to enjoy this publication. I also wish to thank all of YOU, the people who take the time to pick up and read our humble endeavor we couldn't do this without you.

The "Bulletin" is published monthly by the BCCP, aka, Beaver Creek Committee for Community Planning. It is fully funded by the advertisers whose ads you see in each issue. So, please frequent these businesses and organizations' events whenever you can. By helping them you also help us and in turn we help keep you abreast of current events and local information.

If you enjoy reading the paper and would like to support it, but do not have a business whose ad you would like to publish, then you may be interested to know that the BCCP is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) Corporation and your contributions to support the paper are tax deductible. The Editor

(Cont. from pg. 2, Col. 1) The area residents who form the panel met to begin the process of determining a governance model for the "Hamlet" designation. A "Hamlet" is an unincorporated community with an active CPO (Community Planning Organization) that responds to land use proposals and makes recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners. Being a "Hamlet" also assumes increased communications with the County.

The group is to determine how to define a "Hamlet." What will it take to get there? What would be a logical boundary, what would be the best organizational structure, what type and level of services and who should provide them and more. It is planned to have broad community discussion on these issues at a later date.

What the "Hamlet Work Group" comes up with, including information gathered from community input, will be compared with those from other pilot communities. The final recommendations will be presented to the Board of County Commissioners for approval and implementation. The Editor

North Clackamas Parks 'Going to the Dogs Again' With Fifth Annual Dog Daze Monday, September 8th

Take part in North Clackamas Parks and Recreation District's fifth annual Dog Daze of Summer at North Clackamas Aquatic Park - and have a howling good time.

Dog Daze takes place the day before the Aquatic Park closes down for three weeks of annual maintenance Monday, Sept. 8th. All pools will be drained immediately after our canine friends swim. The pools will be cleaned, serviced and sanitized before they are filled with 100-percent fresh water and re-chlorinated.

Sessions are noon to 2:00 p.m., fresh water, $5 per dog and $7 for a multiple-dog family; 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., semi-fresh water, same prices; 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., not-so-fresh water session, $4 per dog and $6 for a multiple-dog family.

The Clackamas County Health Department determined that there would be no significant health risks posed by allowing the dogs to swim in the facility.

For more information on the event, call (503) 557-7873.

“Beavercreek Oregon a History

Through the Looking Glass”

This is Part XIII of a series of articles on the history of the Beavercreek area. Written by Jack Watts, whose family were some of the early settlers of the community. This history is reprinted from his original manuscript that had until now never been published, by permission of Gordon Watts. We dedicate this series to a man and his love of the Beavercreek countryside who took the time to stop, look, listen and capture for all, his remembrances. The Editor.

After serving 35 years, Mrs. Marie W. Havill retired as Postmaster in 1955, at which time Mrs. Irene Steiner received the temporary appointment as acting Postmaster and served until July 27, 1956, which coincided with the appointment of Mr. J. Gordon Watts as the permanent Postmaster. Mrs. Marie Londergan was a long-time Clerk who served under both Mrs. Havill and Mr. Watts until her retirement, when Mrs. Adeline McKay came into the service on June 1, 1959, and served until February 23, 1979.

The Post Office occupied three corners of the store during the time it was operated by the Hoff's (followed by the Havills), before it was moved to the east end of the store building. Construction of the present Post Office began on April 15, 1976, and the new facility was opened October 17, 1976.

Mrs. Mary Gach entered the Postal Service at Gladstone on March 22, 1969 and was transferred to Beavercreek on November 24, 1973, and serves as Clerk and fills in occasionally as substitute carrier during vacations or illness of the regular carriers.

Mr. Roy Kelm began as a substitute carrier on May 21, 1977, and as Mr. Francis retired and Mr. McBurney moved to Route 1, Mr. Kelm became the regular carrier on Route 2.

Mrs. Gail L. Quimby began her service with the Oregon City Post Office and came by transfer to Beavercreek as a substitute rural carrier on November 4, 1978. On May 5, 1979, Mrs. Lucy A. Vertner came to the Beavercreek Post Office as a Clerk and is the newest member of the staff.

Mrs. Kriss Yamasaki served in several communities in California including Cardiff By The Sea, California, before transferring to Gladstone, Oregon on March 23, 1979 where she served as clerk until transferring again to the Beavercreek, Oregon Post Office on December 1, 1979 serving in the same capacity.

J. Gordon Watts received his appointment during the Administration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower on June 4, 1956.

He enlisted in the Navy at the outbreak of our entry into World War 2, and served three years, nine months, being assigned to the U.S.S. Preston a destroyer (tin can), which was lost in the battle of the Solomon islands in the south Pacific on November 15, 1942. His enlistment time along with his Postal service made him eligible for retirement on October 31, 1982, but was able to retire early by reason of accumulated leave time he had not taken, on August 21, 1982. He served until Mrs. Patty Leon was transferred from the main Post Office in Portland and named "Officer in Charge" at Beavercreek, Oregon, Post Office and served until Mrs. Anna Hirsch who was transferred from the main Post Office of Portland to become the Postmaster at Beavercreek effective as of January 8, 1983.

Mrs. Hirsch was born in Glasgow, Montana. She was raised on a farm near Boring, Oregon, attended Orient Grade school, a graduate of Gresham High School, attended Mount Hood Community College, Portland Community College, Portland State university and Postal management courses. She served 16 years in the Postal service prior to coming to Beavercreek, as window clerk, mail classification, customer complaints, delivery services Supervisor and financial technician, was active in the Marriage and family life Council. Beginning experience (Theology, Psychology group for those ending a meaningful relationship) as well as various charity and Bond drives. Gordon Watts was honored with a retirement party arranged by the Beavercreek Post Office staff, clerks, carriers. The party was hosted by Mr and Mrs. Micheal Gach in their home. Then on March 2, 1983 Gordon, his wife Carol and his parents were invited to attend the main Post Office in Portland, where among a group of other Postal retiree's were presented their "etirement Certificates" in an impressive ceremony complete with pictures, the presentations were made by Mr. B.W. Luscher Postmaster of the Portland Post Office.

Among others who have served the local Post Office over the years are:

Mrs. Lena (Hughes) Parry, Griffith Roberts, Elmer Londergan, Wilbur Bohlander, William Essig, Sr, Edward (Ted) and J.H. (Jack) Watts

Two Young Woman Drive Off Road Into a Gully

Two young woman were transported by ambulance to area hospitals after the car they were driving fishtailed and ended upside down in a gully that was filled with water.

The accident occurred on Beavercreek Rd., just south of Red Hereford Rd., on July 28, 2003.

The 1995 black Ford Mustang 2 door was driven by Kori Trenholm, 16, of Milwaukie, OR. She told the responding Sheriff's Deputy, D. Kauffman, that she had taken the corner too fast. She didn't know how fast, and that she was not wearing her seatbelt. She suffered minor injuries.

The passenger, Angela Kasewater, 17, Oregon City, stated that when they came into the corner too fast they went into the oncoming lane of traffic. The driver swerved the car back into their lane. The car then fishtailed and went into the gravel. The car then went off the road and flipped, landing in the gully. She did not know how fast they were going, just too fast. She was wearing her seatbelt. She had a possible broken arm. A witness collaborated Ms. Kasewater's testimony.

The driver was to be issued a citation for not wearing a seatbelt upon release from the hospital.

Two Beavercreek Teens Injured

Two 18 year-olds are recovering from injuries received when the pipe bomb they were trying to make exploded.

The incident occurred on Tuesday, August 19, 2003, in the 21000 block of Unger Rd. The teens were attempting to build a 3" pipe bomb in the garage when the explosion took place. The debris from the blast embedded pipe pieces into a half-inch thick piece of plywood. The one teen suffered extensive damage to one of his hands.

Both teens were taken to Legacy Emanuel Hospital and Health Center in Portland. Anthony Naylor suffered the hand injury and both he and Kyle Bodle were hit by shrapnel and suffered powder burns. Naylor was listed in serious condition the day after the accident.

The young men face accusations of manufacturing and possessing a destructive device. These are Class C felonies and are punishable by up to a five-year sentence and a $100,000.00 fine.

Clackamas County Fire Dist #1 Chief Randy Bruegman Takes Fire Chief Position In Fresno, CA

Clackamas County Fire District #1's Fire Chief Randy Bruegman has announced that he has accepted the Fire Chief's position for the City of Fresno, California. Chief Bruegman has been the current Fire Chief for Clackamas County Fire District #1 for the past seven years. Chief Bruegman is also the current President of the International Association of Fire Chiefs and is looked upon as a leader in today's fire service. Chief Bruegman has high standards and high expectations for today's fire service and is looking forward to new challenges in Fresno, California.

Clackamas County Fire District #1's Board of Directors Chairperson Marilyn Wall describes Chief Bruegman and his accomplishments as follows: "Chief Bruegman leaves a legacy of completed capital construction projects (3 new stations, several renovated stations); a capital equipment improvement program; restructuring to efficiently deal with the challenges facing today's fire service; heightened awareness of the tax increment financing issues facing the District; overseen the expansion of the District by merger; negotiated contracts for services with adjoining cities; raised the profile of the District locally, regionally and nationally; and tirelessly worked to bring the District to a higher level of professionalism and service to the community". "Clackamas County Fire District #1 under Chief Bruegman became the first fire agency in Oregon to receive international accreditation." His leadership skills, integrity and willingness to put service above all else sets a high standard for the future chief."

Chief Bruegman has also been involved in working with the Department of Home Land Security. In his duties as the President of the International Association of Fire Chiefs he and other Washington DC officials are identifying training and resources needed to better prepare the nations fire service against terrorist acts.

The City of Fresno, California was interested in Chief Bruegman due to his extensive and impressive fire services background according to Fresno's City Manger Daniel Hobbs.

The City of Fresno's Fire Department has just under 300 employees and 20 fire stations. Fresno Fire serves a population of 440,000 people.

Chief Bruegman will start his new position as Fire Chief of the City of Fresno on September 15, 2003. Chief Bruegman will be dearly missed by Clackamas County Fire District #1 and the community he served. The community is a better and safer place because of Chief Bruegmans leadership.

Vandalism

On or around July 28, 2003, one of the crews at the new Beavercreek Fire Station discovered that the back building at the old Beavercreek Fire Station had been broken into and vandalized. The vandals painted graffiti on the walls and floor area and threw paint around the downstairs shop area as well as on some new fire hose that was to go on the new Beavercreek

Clackamas County Family Devastated After Serious Motor Vehicle Accident

A Clackamas County family is devastated after a horrible accident kills their six-year-old boy and seriously injures their three daughters just after 9:00 p. m. on Saturday, August 30, 2003. The family was traveling westbound on South Beavercreek Road just south of Oregon City when the pickup truck, driven by the father, left the roadway which caused the attached camper, which the four children were riding in, to strike a tree.

The camper was sheared apart and all four children, ranging in ages from thirteen to six, were ejected onto the side of the road. Multiple fire/paramedic units from Clackamas County Fire District No. 1 and American Medical Response rushed to treat all four children.

Two of the three daughters suffered serious injuries, and the third, which suffered critical injuries, was flown by Lifeflight helicopter to a local area trauma center. The father was not injured and the mother of the children was not present. The cause of the accident is being investigated by the Clackamas County Sheriff's office.

Although it is legal to ride in campers when they are attached directly to the bed of a pickup truck, this incident illustrates the dangers when adults and children are not properly restrained by seatbelts or car seats.

Even a minor accident could cause serious injury to anyone who may be standing up inside a camper during an accident.

Communication Arts Center Work Begins

Work is now under way on the sixth and final new construction project at Clackamas Community College. The Communication Arts Center will provide a home for theater, music and speech and will feature a theater with seating for more than 400.

Students and staff at CCC have thrived for years in less-than-ideal facilities. The theater where dramatic productions take place is a converted lecture hall. Music rehearsals take place in a converted hallway, competing with the sound of bouncing balls in the gym. The art gallery at the college is in the corridor of a classroom building. All that will change when the Communication Arts Center is completed in December 2004.

The 43,000 square-foot building will feature a theater with professional quality sound and lighting equipment, dressing rooms, green room and a real shop where sets will be designed and built. The flexible space can seat from 250 to 400 people. Music students will practice in dedicated vocal and instrumental rehearsal rooms. The facility will feature a recording studio that will offer students the latest computer and technological enhancements.

The center will also feature a secure art gallery that will showcase the work of emerging artists and will serve as a lab for students studying museum science. "The new center will create a sense of possibilities for art students," said David Andersen, chairman of the Art Department.

Three of the six buildings funded through a bond passed by voters in November 2000 have been completed. The welding and industrial technology building opened for classes spring term. Summer term classes are taking place in both the new studio arts center and the Streeter annex. Two more buildings, Pauling annex and the Gateway building are on line for completion late this fall.

In the meantime, portions of the campus remain a construction zone, shifting parking areas, and on occasion, pedestrian walkways. The parking lot between the Dye Learning Center and Gregory Forum is closed during the Communication Arts Center construction. A new temporary parking lot has been installed to the east of the Barlow parking lot.

Information Booth Protect Yourself

On Wednesday, September 24, 2003, from 10:00 a. m. to noon, the Milwaukie Center will be hosting an information booth on how not to get "scammed" on home repairs.

Pat Carroll, the Public Education Assistant from the Oregon Construction Contractors Board (CCB) will be available with information on how to recognize common home improvement and repair scams and how to avoid becoming a victim.

The CCB is a State agency that protects consumers by regulating construction contracting businesses. Oregon law requires that all types of contractors who perform work on residential and non-residential structures in Oregon be licensed. The CCB accepts complaints against licensed contractors with on-site investigation/mediation and, when necessary, more formal settlement.

This booth will give you sound advice on how to protect yourself when working with a licensed contractor, understanding the differences between a scam and just poor workmanship or business practices and what you can do if either activity takes place. For more information, call Cheryl at (503) 653-8100.

Anne Hinds Photo Display and Sale

You're invited to an artist reception for Anne Hinds, which will be held at the Milwaukie Center on Thursday, September 25, 2003, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Hinds, a renowned photographer, has traveled the world with her camera and studied with Ansel Adams, Eugene Smith and Brett Weston. She has graciously donated a collection of her photographs to the Friends of the Milwaukie Center. The photos will be on display starting in September. Clackamas County Dispute Resolution Center Offers Mediation Training in October

The Clackamas County Dispute Resolution Center has scheduled a 40 hour basic mediation training in October. The Workforce Mediation and Intercultural Conflict Resolution course will be held Oct. 15, 16, 17, 20 and 21.

This comprehensive five-day course teaches the skills and techniques of interest-based mediation in a workplace context with an intercultural perspective. Participants will learn a practical and structured process for helping parties to a dispute find mutually agreeable solutions. Participants will develop communication, negotiation and mediation skills, which are applicable in the workplace and interpersonal relationships. The training is designed for those interested in entering the field of mediation and for others looking for better ways to help individuals and groups resolve conflict.

The classes will be taught by Stan Sitnick and Jon Townsend. Combining different backgrounds and disciplines, the two collectively have more than 50 years of experience as conflict resolvers. They have been leading workshops together for eight years. For more information and to enroll call Amy Cleary (503) 534-5452 for details, or email her at:
